REFLECTION

Today we acknowledge that while leaders of nations in this world come and go, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is ruler over all people both now and forever. The idea to celebrate this feast was born out of a growing nationalism and secularism one hundred years ago. The world had just lived through the horrors of four years of war unprecedented in its spread over the whole world. This led to Pope Pius XI instituting this feast in 1925. Today we recognize Christ's preeminence and pray for the day when peace and goodwill forever overcome war and aggression.

REFLECCION

Hoy reconocemos que, aunque los líderes de las naciones van y vienen, Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios, es Rey de todos los pueblos ahora y siempre. La idea de celebrar esta fiesta surgió para contrarrestar un excesivo nacionalismo y secularismo hace cien años. El mundo había vivido y acabado de pasar los horrores de cuatro años de guerra, cuya expansión al mundo entero no había tenido precedente. Esto llevó a que el papa Pío XI instituyera esta fiesta en el año 1925. Hoy reconocemos la preeminencia de Cristo y oramos para que llegue el día en que la paz y la buena voluntad superen las guerras y las agresiones.

DID YOU KNOW? Children are especially susceptible to colds and flu, partly because they are exposed to more germs at school or daycare, or from picking up random objects and less frequent hand washing. You can protect your child against germs by taking preventative actions. Encourage (and model) regular hand washing and good hygiene, such as sneezing or coughing into your elbow. Monitor family members for signs of illness and if sick, stay home. For more information, visit cdc.gov/flu.

SABIA USTED QUE? Los niños son especialmente susceptibles a los resfriados y a la gripe, en parte porque están expuestos a más gérmenes en la escuela o en la guardería, o por recoger objetos al azar y lavarse las manos con menos frecuencia. Usted puede proteger a su hijo contra los gérmenes tomando medidas preventivas. Fomente (y modele) el lavado de manos regular y una buena higiene, como estornudar o toser en el codo. Supervise a los miembros de la familia para detectar signos de enfermedad y, si están enfermos, quédense en casa. Para obtener más información, visite cdc.gov/flu.

CELEBRATING BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

Did you know that a former slave who worked as a hairdresser in New York more than two centuries ago is on track to become the first African American man canonized as a saint from the United States?

Pierre Toussaint was born and raised as a Catholic slave in Haiti when it was still a French colony. To escape the slave rebellions that eventually drove out the French government, Toussaint's owners fled, with him, to New York. He was assigned as an apprentice to one of the city's leading hairdressers, and became quite successful. When his slave-owner died, Toussaint quietly supported his owner's widow. She, in gratitude, freed Toussaint from his slave status. Toussaint later married and used his considerable wealth to support charitable causes, including work against religious and racial prejudice. Toussaint's death in 1853, at age 87, sparked widespread mourning. Just 13 years ago, Pope John Paul II declared Pierre Toussaint, Venerable- the first step to becoming a saint.

O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy my complacency;
bestir my compassion,
and be concerned enough to help;
By word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take for granted.

Oh Dios, cuando tengo comida,
ayúdame a recordar a los hambrientos;
Cuando tengo trabajo,
ayúdame a recordar a los desempleados;
Cuando tengo un hogar,
ayúdame a recordar a aquellos que no tienen ningún hogar;
Cuando estoy sin dolor,
ayúdame a recordar a los que sufren,
Y recordando,
ayúdame a destruir mi complacencia;
bestir mi compasión,
y preocuparme lo suficiente como para ayudar;
Con palabras y hechos,
aquellos que claman por lo que damos por sentado.
